ADDITIONAL SUPERVISION NEEDS FOR STUDENTS

Supervision outside the classroom is necessary to protect the physical safety of the students. Each Principal or designee will be responsible to draw up a list of supervisory duties and assign staff members within the building to cover them. The duties specifically shall include: breakfast, lunch, recess, hall monitoring, bus duties, as well as other duties unique to a particular building or educational level. The numbers of staff members required for a particular duty or set of duties will be determined by the Principal or designee. The Principal or designee will assign duties fairly among the staff.
